Lago Sport Park Queen To Try For Aruba Carnival Crown

By noon next Wednesday a young lady who works for Lago will have been elected "Carnival Queen" of the Lago Sport Park and entered the race for the title of "Carnival Queen of Aruba."

She will be one of six women employees who were nominated by Lago Sport Park Board members to vie for the sport park title and carry its standard into the island-wide competition with close to 120 other contestants.

Representing various island sport, social and business organizations, the young ladies will be featured in the top event of the island's celebration of the traditional pre-Lenten festivities, "Carnival".

A "Central Carnival Committee," appointed to arrange the celebration, has announced a trip to Trinidad for the winner of the island title; a trip to Curaçao for the runner-up.

Election of the sport park queen will get underway with the appearance of the Aruba Esso News today. Each employee will be entitled to vote for one candidate via the ballot printed in this issue.

The marked ballots are to be deposited before noon Feb. 15 in boxes located at Gates 1, 3, 5, 6 and 8; the Lago Commissary and the lobby of
